Convenience is everything and with 66 Steuart St you can enjoy a short stroll to local shops, schools, sporting fields and even the CBD. Leave your car keys behind as everything is within reach. Step into a Traditional Queenslander adorned with original fretwork and timeless period features, exuding charm, and character from the curb. This 5-bedroom family home is packed with value and character. With polished wooden floors, high ceilings and original fretwork. 5 bedrooms plus a sunroom means you won't want for space! Fans and air conditioners are scattered through the home, so summer won't be a problem and there is even solar on the roof, so it won't cost you! The spacious well equip kitchen/combined dining leads downstairs to the separate laundry and bathroom our out onto the veranda. Your veranda is the perfect spot to entertain or watch the kids or 4 legged children play as it looks out over the massive fully fenced yard which features some nice big mango trees and established gardens. Side access from the street gives you access to the large double bay shed and there is an additional smaller garden shed in the yard. At first glance:-
