Located in one of the highest streets in the sought after Helensvale, on a block of 1,807m² with the ideal aspect and panoramic coastal and bush views, is this architecturally designed home offers peace and tranquillity. It enlivens the senses and calm your mind and soul. The property features four bedrooms, two bathrooms and undercover parking for six plus cars. It can also accommodate a caravan/boat/trailer. The moment you step in the house, you will be mesmerised by the panoramic views, the vaulted ceilings, the bold use of solid timber pillars that can only be seen in the art galleries, and beautifully polished hard wood timber flooring that brings warmth to your heart and comfort to your feet. The house was well constructed and survived the devastating tornado on Christmas Day in 2023 without any damage. Main features:- 1,807m² freehold block, back to beautiful natural reserve- Lofty, wide, low-traffic street- Country kitchen with spectacular views- Open plan living with timber flooring- Expansive verandas embrace the panoramic views- Large master with ensuite and walk-in robe- Three more bedrooms, each with built-in robes- All bedrooms have Crimsafe screens and fans- The roof is only 18 months old and still under warranty- Undercover parking for six plus cars/caravan/boat/trailer- Room aplenty for a new pool- Enormous backyard with plenty of room for kids and pets- With its large land size and wide streets, this property possesses enormous potential.
