

67 Atkinson Way, Lancelin, WA 6044

Sold House

Saturday, 17 February 2024

67 Atkinson Way, Lancelin, WA 6044

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Area: 1052 m2

Type: House

Rash Dhanjal
0300243629

Linda Trpchev
0437280503

$500,000

This Charming Cottage has been totally renovated to the highest standard and will impress the most fastidious buyers. Step inside and be awestruck by the recent total renovations that have transformed this home into a modern vintage beauty. No expense has been spared with the use of quality fittings and fixtures. Chef's kitchen with plenty of cupboards and bench space with feature overhead jarrah light fitting. Fridge recess with overhead cupboards comes complete with stainless steel fridge/freezer. This 3 bedroom home has polished jarrah floorboards throughout and all new internal doors. The bathroom and laundry are new with lots of cupboard space and even a separate new toilet. Outdoor decking completes the rear of the property leaving you a blank canvas to transform the outside of this shady 1052 sqm block. There is a shed/garage at the rear of the property under the main roof. Escape the hustle and bustle and come and enjoy the Coast and the lifestyle that Lancelin has to offer. Only one hour from Joondalup. This is the perfect getaway or put your finishing touches and make it your permanent home. Oh don't worry if you drive an electric car as there is a charging station across the road. View with Linda Trpchev - 0437280503 Disclaimer: This information is provided for general information purposes only and is based on information provided by the Seller and may be subject to change. No warranty or representation is made as to its accuracy and interested parties should place no reliance on it and should make their own independent enquiries.