Rarely does an opportunity arise to own a prestigious property built on the mountain summit. The property seamlessly combines grandeur, serenity, and practicality. A haven for those who cherish expansive mountaintop vistas and a profound connection with nature. Stepping into this majestic five-bedroom residence, you are greeted by an expansive lounge/family room that seamlessly flows onto a vast patio, offering sweeping views of the mesmerising Gold Coast skyline. Spanning an approximate floor space of 395m², the property features granite benchtops, high-quality finishes, and an alarm system, ensuring a blend of luxury and security. Noteworthy features like the synthetic grass on the balcony not only provide a soft-touch surface but also offer a safe and enjoyable space for children to play, with gates that can close off the area entirely. The enviable wet-edge pool, accompanied by a spacious patio and BBQ area, establishes this residence as the epitome of outdoor entertainment and a private, tranquil escape. Together, these elements create an idyllic setting for both lively outdoor gatherings and peaceful, private retreats. Whether hosting a vibrant poolside party or relishing a quiet evening under the stars, this outdoor oasis sets the stage for creating lasting memories with loved ones.
