This property offers a lifestyle that so many people are seeking these days. Set on 1.202 Ha (2.97 acres) of fertile farmland, the house has no close neighbours. There is a spring fed dam which provides unlimited crystal clear water for gardening or livestock. The home has just had major renovations including a new Colorbond roof, freshly painted, new floor coverings, wood heater and kitchen. It consists of four bedrooms, 2 of which have built ins and the main has a lovely polished Tas Oak floor. The kitchen has just been installed and is a stunning central feature of this home. The new Saxon wood heater with a ceiling ducted heat transfer kit provides ample heating throughout. There is an enclosed entertaining space on the eastern and western side of the house which is a lovely sunny space overlooking the gardens. The fruit trees are in flower ready for a bumper crop this summer. The home is minutes from the Trowutta Arch, a renowned tourist attraction of spectacular beauty. You can enjoy a peaceful, stress-free life enjoying your own fruit, vegetables, eggs and meat. 25 minutes drive from Smithton.
