A pretty-as-a-picture double fronted faade with bullnose verandah forms the perfect backdrop for this cute as a button weatherboard cottage. Stylish updates, crisp neutral decor and a rear deck for alfresco entertaining deliver an inviting contemporary ambience whilst dado boards, timber floors and a fireplace with original fuel stove honour the home's period origins. A central hallway is flanked by two bedrooms before the open plan living space and gas-equipped kitchen unfold to the fenced backyard. A third bedroom, modern full-size bathroom with laundry and a bonus carport ties the bow. A gentle stroll will have you amongst waterfront parkland and a mix of cafes, trendy pubs and the local school. An easy cycle and you're cruising along the harbour foreshore or relaxing on one of Newcastle's famous beaches.- Open plan living connects to deck and established gardens with air-conditioning- Natural light filled kitchen with gas stove and garden outlook- All three bedrooms are airy and bright appointed with ceiling fans- Modern bathroom/laundry with shower over bath- Carport, level walk to local cafes and pubs- 2.3km to the Newcastle Interchange and 3km to Marketown for everyday essentials* This information has been prepared to assist solely in the marketing of this property.
