Offered to the market for the very first time in the past four decades, number 67 Shillington Way sits proudly on a 704sqm allotment. Constructed circa 1979 and lovingly cared for by its fastidious original owner, it presents in as-new condition with a solid brick and tile construction. Sporting accommodation of 3 bedrooms and complimented with the free flowing lounge/ family room together with lovely kitchen/ meals, this modest residence would make the perfect first home or indeed the ideal investment to add to your property portfolio. With property at this price level becoming increasingly difficult to find, do not delay in securing your real estate dream...
