Screaming opportunity, this fantastic single-level home is on the market and ready for new memories to be created in. Designed with a simple but friendly open floor plan, the property has been updated throughout the years to provide all the amenities you would come to need, from feeding the whole family to cooling down the house in the hotter times of the year. As we are sure this property will entice many, we encourage your immediate inspection! The property features three bedrooms, an open plan kitchen that flows to the dining and living room, a main bathroom, a freestanding work shed/games room, an undercover verandah and ample yard space. Ready to move into as is, this home is perfect for those looking for their first home, those looking to break into the Kiama market, and investors alike, alternatively, this home may appeal to those looking to take on their next renovation project. Being so centrally located, enjoy the family park only 50m away, walk only 150m to Kiama High School, 300m to Kiama's beloved top shops, or take a short two-minute drive to Kiama's township and be met with boutique shops, cafes, restaurants, parks, supermarket and beaches. To register your interest, please call Matthew Lay on 0448 440 609 or Rodney Clarke on 0452 273 384.
