This charming property was built just seven years ago, so while it maintains a beautiful, more traditional street appeal, it also offers all the modern comforts, such as double glazing, insulation, and banks of solar. As you're welcomed through the ornate entrance door, you will surely be charmed by thoughtfully incorporated features. High ceilings and deep skirtings, paying homage to the builds that inspired it, as well as decorative cornices and wood look flooring. The master bedroom is found just off the entrance hall and provides a walk-in robe, a spacious ensuite, and its own heating and cooling. The additional two bedrooms offer built-in storage and panel heaters as well as charming views into the property's garden. The kitchen, living, and dining areas are light, bright, and filled with country charm. The kitchen has timber benchtops, plenty of storage and workspace, induction cooking, and a dishwasher. A large rear deck is easily accessed off the dining area and provides a partially covered outdoor entertaining option with gorgeous township views. A double garage with a freestanding wood heater is found within the garden, which is securely fenced for children and pets. This sweet little cottage sits within comfortable walking distance of all of Cygnet's shops and services and is just 45 minutes from the Hobart CBD.
