Nestled on the north side of this character cottage, 67 Woronora Parade seamlessly blends charm with modern amenities. Offering three generously sized bedrooms, this home is great for those looking to downsize or young families wanting to break into the Oatley market. With large windows throughout, natural sunlight floods the interior illuminating both the kitchen and dining area. This home has a welcoming ambiance accentuating its spaciousness. With ample counter space and an open plan kitchen/dining area, this well-lit space offers versatility for everyday living and entertaining alike. Preserving a connection to the past, original features like ornate ceilings showcase craftsmanship while the meticulously maintained backyard invites outdoor activities and relaxation amidst manicured gardens. The inviting outdoor area serves as a versatile extension, providing an ideal setting for leisurely gatherings, alfresco dining, or simply unwinding amidst the fresh air. Whilst feeling very secluded, the property is conveniently located just moments stroll from Oatley Train Station, Coles supermarket, nearby shopping village, essential services, dining options, coffee shops, schools, and Oatley Park. Awaken the possibilities and contact Jack Huggett on 0422 690 929 for further information.
