A retro classic with a flexible and generously proportioned floorplan, this family home is nestled amongst leafy surrounds in sought after Mount Nelson. A dual title allotment of over 8000m² delivers the luxury of privacy, space and tranquillity with picturesque views across the trees all the way down to the River Derwent. Multiple spacious living areas ensure ample room for the whole family, with a family room, dining room opening onto a patio, living room and spacious kitchen with walk in pantry on the upper level, and a large rumpus and study on the lower floor. The master suite has a walk in robe and ensuite bathroom, and five other bedrooms on the upper level are serviced by a central family bathroom and separate WC. A sixth bedroom and further bathroom and laundry on the ground floor complete the accommodation. A double garage with internal access adds secure undercover parking. A combination of electric and wood heating ensures year round comfort. The interior features many original design elements, which combined with the endless possibilities across the floorplan, gives this home immense potential. Idyllically located to offer relaxed country style living close to nearby reserves and nature trails, Mount Nelson also gives the best of both worlds within easy reach of excellent local schools, the shops and amenities of Sandy Bay Village, and Hobart's CBD. Purchasers seeking an urban retreat will be excited by the opportunities provided by this property.
