Welcome to your next great opportunity! This versatile property truly has something for everyone. For first-time homebuyers, this is your chance to secure a foothold in today's competitive market. Seasoned investors will appreciate the potential to enhance the existing dwelling, maximizing yield while planning future developments (subject to council approval). Families will love the extra space for vehicles, boats, trailers, and more, making it easy to settle into this highly sought-after area. The property's prime location offers excellent proximity to both public and private schools, ensuring quality education options are just a stone's throw away. Convenience is at your doorstep with fantastic local shops, restaurants, and cafes directly across the road. Plus, the brilliant central position allows for easy navigation around the Redlands and greater Brisbane area.
