This three-bedroom family home is close to all that Sandy Bay has to offer and has stunning water views. The spacious living area of the home is entered by the deck, both of which have a gorgeous outlook to the Derwent River and beyond. The neat dining and kitchen area features ample storage and bench space. Of the three bedrooms, two feature built-ins and the main is positioned at the front of the home, also enjoying the river views. The bathroom is well-sized and the toilet is separate. There are beautiful floorboards throughout, which have been recently polished. Underneath the home is a garage and workshop with auto door. Outside, there is plenty of room to enjoy the sunshine and company, with the large 701m<sup>2</sup> block. There is a large yard at the front and back and an undercover area. This home is wonderfully located, being a quick walk to Long Beach and Alexandra Battery Park and is close to schools, Lower Sandy Bay shops, restaurants and services. You're even on a convenient bus route, with a bus stop on your doorstep.
