A contemporary living space designed for both comfort and convenience. This two-bedroom residence presents a practical yet modern lifestyle, perfect for those who value functionality without sacrificing style. The bedrooms are thoughtfully outfitted with built-in robes, offering ample storage while maintaining a sleek aesthetic. The master bedroom stands out with its unique feature – direct access to a well-appointed two-way bathroom, ensuring both comfort and seclusion for residents. The kitchen serves as the heart of the home, featuring modern appliances including a 600mm gas cooktop, electric oven, and dishwasher. This space seamlessly combines practicality with contemporary design, making meal preparation a breeze for the buyers that like to entertain. Recent upgrades such as fresh paint and new carpets infuse the interiors with a sense of rejuvenation, creating an inviting atmosphere. Ducted heating throughout the residence ensures warmth during the colder months, enhancing overall comfort. Step outside to a private courtyard, providing an oasis for relaxation or small gatherings. Meanwhile, the single lock-up garage, conveniently accessed from a private road, adds an extra layer of security and accessibility. Strategically situated, this property offers proximity to public transport, Coltman Plaza, schools, and the Melbourne freeway via a link road. This balance between urban convenience and suburban tranquillity makes 67a Dyson Drive a prime choice for those seeking the best of both worlds. Whether you're a discerning homebuyer looking for modern comfort or an investor seeking an appealing property, 67a Dyson Drive caters to various needs. Its turnkey status and quality living make it an opportunity not to be missed.
