Located just a stone's throw from several major hospitals, shopping, and within five minutes of the CBD, this is inner-city living at its best. This Queenslander cottage offers a spacious layout featuring three bedrooms, and boasts ample entertaining space with a back deck overlooking the leafy rear yard. With air conditioning throughout living through summer will be a breeze. The contemporary kitchen is adjacent to a tiled dining area and boasts a double pantry, stainless steel appliances and sunny outlook to the back yard. With two up-to-date bathrooms and plenty of off street parking, this home is ideal for a family looking to live moments from the action in Brisbane's inner south.
