

68 Baker Street, Richmond Hill, Qld 4820

Sold House

Wednesday, 22 November 2023

68 Baker Street, Richmond Hill, Qld 4820

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 4

Area: 900 m2

Type: House

Julia Fraser

Contact agent

This highset home will appeal to everyone from first home buyers or families seeking a comfortable and convenient lifestyle. Gone are the days of being a slave to your home and yard on weekends, simply move on in and enjoy! A quaint sunroom on entry is the perfect sitting room that fills the combined lounge and dining area with natural light. Well-appointed kitchen features electric cooking appliances, dishwasher, plenty of storage options and bench space. Sizeable master bedrooms and two further bedrooms all include air-conditioning and built-in robes. Practical main bathroom and separate water closet complete the upstairs areas. Semi-enclosed downstairs offers plenty of storage space, a generous laundry area and comfortable single room, partial kitchenette, and bathroom facilities. This entire downstairs space would be the perfect option for a teenager's haven, guest room or those working from home. The private inviting inground pool is the perfect addition to the fully fenced 900sqm corner allotment featuring boarded gardens beds, lawn locker, single garage and raised 3-bay carport perfect to accommodate a caravan, motorhome, or boat. A 10KW solar system will significantly reduce your power bills and limit your carbon footprint. Your search for the completed home is over and your next chapter begins here.