Step into a world of classic Edwardian charm with this exquisite residence on the iconic Bastings Street. This spacious home offers room for your entire family with four generously sized bedrooms, providing comfort and privacy for all. The home office is ideal for those who need workspace or extra room for creativity, it whispers tales of a bygone era while offering ample opportunity to modernise for any growing family. Versatile living options include upstairs retreat / rumpus with its own private balcony overlooking endless outdoor native marvels, plus open plan kitchen, meals and living zone that feeds out to an entertainer's deck, expansive garden and a garage for your convenience. Creature comforts a plenty with rear laneway access, original Baltic Pine and hardwood flooring, stunning stained glass bay windows, split systems, passive heating and cooling. Set on a generous, easement-free 560sqm (approx.) and nestled in a tree-lined street, you are only 500m to Johnson Park and High Street vibrant shopping cafe and shopping precinct. Its timeless beauty and modern potential makes it the perfect canvas for your family's dreams. The choice is yours: Restore this gem to its former glory, or explore the possibilities of a development, or knockdown and rebuild project (STCA).
