Located in the sought-after suburb of South Arm, this contemporary family residence offers a serene beachside living experience that delivers a comfortable and relaxing lifestyle. The expansive and inviting open-plan living combines dedicated dining and the contemporary kitchen that includes feature pitched ceilings and an elevated outlook over the water to kunanyi/Mount Wellington. The culinary space boasts quality appliances and ample storage space, with room to dine-in via a breakfast bar. This space is further enhanced by a timber deck that provides a perfect space for outdoor living, dining and entertaining. Three bedrooms make up comfortable accommodation, each enjoying ample natural light and warmth. The spacious master is located on the first floor and enjoys a private ensuite while the remaining two bedrooms connect to a central bathroom, one with the added benefit of a walk-in wardrobe. The yard is fenced containing established gardens, lawns, and trees. A courtyard provides an additional outdoor entertaining space, within proximity to the living via an elevated porch. Ample off-street parking leads to a car port. Occupying a truly coveted position just seconds from the beach, and within proximity of amenities of the South Arm village as well as a short drive to the shopping hub of Lauderdale, this impressive home is an amazing lifestyle opportunity.
