The enduring appeal of 1920's era architecture is perfectly represented with this three bedroom residence zoned to Strathmore Secondary College. Perfectly private and featuring glistening leadlight windows and doors throughout, this inviting home showcases a free-flowing floorplan where freshly polished timber floors line a spacious lounge with an open fireplace, a country inspired eat-in kitchen features granite counters and a full suite of appliances and exceedingly private front gardens offer a landscaped space to relax and entertain in. With bedrooms with robes privately set on their own floor along with a stylishly renovated two-way bathroom, this home with ducted heating, split system air-conditioner, alarm plus off-street parking promises a lifestyle of enviable convenience set amid nostalgic interiors, near buses, Melville Road trams, parks, local shopping, bustling Sydney Road and CityLink.
