Peacefully situated in a cul-de-sac enjoying easy access to Moonee Ponds Creek Trail, Windy Hill precinct and zoning for Strathmore Secondary College, this cherished three bedroom Californian Bungalow on a generous 657sqm approximately block is a rare gem worth polishing. Poised for contemporary renovation, the property presents in neat and tidy condition and offers a blank canvas for motivated family homebuyers to make it their forever home (subject to council approval). A timeless façade, high ceilings, wide central hallway and charming lounge hint to the home's heritage era. While a rear addition comprises spacious kitchen, with gas stove, and family dining area enjoying views of nearby parklands. Certain to impress green thumbs with a passion for home grown goodies, the generous backyard offers a mouth-watering display of apple, pear, citrus and walnut trees. The tightly held home also offers double bedrooms, classic bathroom, two toilets, ducted heating, rainwater tank, carport, steel garage/workshop/storage area/chicken coop. Close to shops, schools and transport.
