A short stroll to the vibrant boutiques and eateries of Chapel Street, this fully renovated single fronted Victorian terrace offers charm, character and the space for a sophisticated inner-city lifestyle. The two bedroom home skillfully marries period details with contemporary updates to create a comfortable low-maintenance environment with superb indoor-outdoor living. A classic arched hallway flows from the front door past both bedrooms with storage and exquisite period fireplaces before arriving at the European laundry and the large stylish modern bathroom. The kitchen with Bosch stainless steel appliances, smoky mirrored splash back and oversized stone island bench overlooks the expansive dining and living room where bi-fold doors open to the deck and private back garden for seamless alfresco entertaining. Appointed with wide floorboards, designer light fittings, heating and reverse cycle air conditioning, this home's enviable location means it is walking distance to the Prahran Market, Malvern Road, trams, local parks, Hawksburn Village and station.
