As they say with a classic car "one lady owner" well this home has been in the one family all its life and was built by the current owners. The home was originally designed to facilitate a second storey but they never had the opportunity to complete this project. The home has a solid foundation for future renovations or redevelopment to bring the original dream to light. This delightfully neat and tidy 2 bedroom home is ready for you to snap up and give it your touch of love. Being located just a short stroll from the pristine white sands of Carrickalinga Beach, this is a great spot for the family to enjoy endless summer holidays. Configured with 2 good sized bedrooms both with ceiling fans, open plan lounge, kitchen and dining, main bathroom with shower, plus a separate toilet and laundry, this home offers plenty of flexibility for all types of families. Your comfort is taken care of with a split system R/C in the main living. Set on a large allotment you have access to the garage at the rear from under the main carport off the side of the home, a fully enclosed rear yard can keep the kids and pets safe on those summer holidays. This will be snapped up quickly so don't delay as you don't want to miss this one.
