Let me introduce you to 68 Newcastle Street, York, the property that truly has it all, offering immediate comfort and happiness upon move-in. With four generously sized bedrooms and two bathrooms, it caters perfectly to family living. The parent's retreat at the front of the home complete with a built in wardrobe. The kitchen stands out with its unique colour palette and ample space, making it the heart of the home, added coziness of the centrally located fireplace between the lounge and formal dining provides warmth and ambiance to make you really feel at home coming into these cold winter months. The layout includes three additional bedrooms at the opposite end of the house, a central vestibule with many potential uses, accompanied by the main bathroom, laundry, and a separate toilet. Outdoors, you'll find a lean-to for storage or additional protected carports, a triple car garage, a large shed and a large patio ideal for entertaining, even in the summer time with misters installed. The highlight of the outdoor space is undoubtedly the beautiful salt water, below ground pool, perfect for relaxation and fun when summer rolls in and you can keep the power bills down with the solar panels already installed. Despite all these features, the 2029 sqm property still boasts plenty of space for the lush green lawns, garden beds, vegetable gardens, and additional storage sheds for wood and supplies. Priced at $650,000, this stunning family home offers exceptional value. To arrange an inspection, contact Courtney Hughes at 037 225 793 or Steve Hill at 0407 778 462 today.
