The word "Potential" is over used and overstated in real estate; until today. This large five bedroom two bathroom brick home is packed with potential. A renovator's vision will make light work of creating something special here. The property is located on a perfectly flat block only 800 metres to the sands of surf beach and the shopping precinct for a quick coffee or bite to eat. Priced to sell so don't muck around. A full fact sheet is available on request.
