Centrally located, this neatly presented home has been updated to offer the perfect place to move in and enjoy with easy access to schools, shopping and everyday services. North facing, the home is filled with an abundance of natural light and features polished floorboards throughout. With an updated kitchen featuring plenty of cupboards and practical tiled floor area, which adjoins the spacious and welcoming lounge room with views to the river, this welcoming home offers easy every day living. Each of the three bedrooms are of a good size, two with built-ins, as well as a separate bathroom, toilet and laundry. At the rear, a large, sunny backyard provides space for children and pets to play and plenty of space to start a garden for those with a green thumb. The convenient location provides quick access via the Brooker Highway to the city centre, Glenorchy central, and the vibrant hub of Moonah, placing popular eateries and entertainment options at your fingertips. This wonderful home is certain to impress upon inspection.
