

68 Serpentine Way, Stake Hill, WA 6181

Sold Acreage

Monday, 15 January 2024

68 Serpentine Way, Stake Hill, WA 6181

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 2

Area: 2 m2

Type: Acreage

Neil Woollacott
0863237333

Emma Goff
0423695936

Contact agent

Discover the perfect blend of spacious living and rural tranquillity in this stunning 4-bedroom, 2-bathroom estate nestled on 5 acres in the peaceful enclave of Stake Hill. With its gated entrance and sweeping driveway leading to the residence, this property offers security and privacy in a serene natural setting. The hallway seamlessly flows into the open living area, featuring a kitchen and dining area with a freestanding fireplace. Just off the living area is a versatile theatre room, providing additional space for family gatherings, while double French doors lead into the spacious games room with sliding glass doors that open to the outside entertaining area. The well-appointed kitchen comes equipped with a built-in oven and four-burner gas cooktop, a dishwasher, double sink, fridge recess, and ample counter space for all your culinary needs. The laundry boasts an impressively spacious layout, complete with a convenient shopper's entrance, ample storage solutions, and sliding doors that lead to the drying area. Additionally, the main hallway offers easy access to a generously sized walk-in storeroom and linen closet. The outdoor area is a wonderful feature of this property, where great family times are certain to be had. From here, enjoy views of the pool and the picturesque, treed surroundings. The below-ground pool sanctuary boasts a Balinese-inspired gazebo and stylish shade sails, providing the perfect setting for relaxation and entertainment during those scorching summer days. This property has a massive 12m x 8m powered workshop boasting an extra high entrance, as well as a second 8.5m x 6m workshop with a lean-to, ensuring all your storage and project needs are met. The property's versatility extends to its fenced paddocks, and a chicken run. The grounds are irrigated from a bore, and the home is serviced by tank water. Uniquely positioned on an undulating block and bordering native reserves and waterways, this property offers a perfect and tranquil lifestyle. Don't miss the opportunity to make it your own retreat. Ph Neil Woollacott 0407 59 2244