Enviably set on a sensational 978m² (approx.) parcel of land, this exquisite home merges the lines between contemporary modern updates, elegant period grace and vast expansion potential. From the moment you arrive, you are welcomed home with charm and warmth – from the polished timber floors to the vast and well-placed windows, this well thought out property is an exceptional family home or highly sought after holiday retreat. Earmarked as the new Daylesford, Dunkeld continues to thrill and delight with its exception growth and development allowing a fabulous property in this incredible corridor to only be capped by your imagination! Offering 3 great sized bedrooms (or the 3rd as a lovely second living area and Master bedroom with Walk in Robe, wood fire and Ensuite), modern central kitchen (including freestanding Belling double oven with 4 burner gas cooktop, dishwasher, double stainless steel sink, stone bench top with breakfast bar and excellent cupboard and bench space), 2nd bathroom (including laundry) overlooking the light drenched dining and lounge area with easy access to the rear undercover deck capturing exquisite uninterrupted views across to Mount Sturgeon and Mount Abrupt – this perfectly orientated rear deck and spacious yard will have you entertaining friends and family all year round. To complete this sensational package nicely, the home is complemented with a double carport direct to the house, large backyard, neat low maintenance grounds, terrific fencing and garden shed. Securing easy access to the newly completed Peaks Walking Trail, the picturesque Arboretum, the award-winning Royal Mail and Parker Street Cafe precinct, plus an abundance of further first-class walking tracks and tranquil parks, this private oasis truly has it all. This magnificent location also secures you a 30-minute picturesque drive to set you amongst the enchanting Halls Gap ranges or a 1-hour drive to Port Fairy and Warrnambool and the world-famous Great Ocean Road. The tranquil way of life that is secured here at picture perfect Dunkeld is second to none and offers more than just a home, it secures for you a lifestyle investment for now and the future.
