Mastering the art of adaptation, this engaging freestanding Victorian reveals ingenuity, individualism, and an indoor/outdoor lifestyle that's paramount to its reimagined design. Ensuring interaction with the outdoors is an integral part of daily life, the living and dining domain encompasses two distinct, relaxing courtyards within the footprint of the open plan design, and a Bosch/Miele kitchen with induction cooktop, defining the home as a welcome entertainer. In the pursuit of maximum space utilisation, the guest bedroom meets changing lifestyle needs and performs superbly as a home office, whilst the two primary bedrooms include the main bedroom with an ensuite. A central bathroom and separate laundry complete the home's amenities with contemporary comforts extending to ducted heating, air conditioning, built in robes, secure entry, and beautiful herringbone timber floors. Celebrating a Hawksburn Village lifestyle, this picture perfect charmer is a short walk from shops, cafes, and excellent restaurants, the tram to Prahran Market and Chapel Street, and beautiful dog-friendly Victoria Gardens.
