Live the life of the rich and famous here in Waterview Terraces, where you have full use of the pool, the tennis court and the open garden zone. Unit 69 is a highly-affordable apartment combining budget with position and outlooks to give you what you deserve! A short distance from the front entrance of the complex is your own lockup garage right below the apartment. In the apartment you will find: separate tiled entrance area, leading into the kitchen and open plan living. The compact but practical kitchen has stainless steel appliances including a Bosch dishwasher, range hood and separate pantry. Adjacent you will find a European-style laundry with trough and space for a washing machine and dryer. A more-than-adequate living space opens out to the balcony which in turn has glimpses of Rowes Bay to Pallarenda. The main bedroom has a double glass-door walk in robes to the ensuite with 900mm glass shower recess. It also has glimpses towards Pallarenda! The second bedroom has double mirrored built in robes and direct access to the two-way main bathroom. With a double linen cupboard, modern ceiling fans, 3 air-conditioners, and updated carpets in the bedrooms, you will be able to settle in to your new apartment with ease. Waterview Terraces, under new management, is a well cared-for complex with an active Body Corporate and beautiful gardens and facilities.
