This beautiful Federation-era home offers a wonderful family residence from the first impression of its classic double-fronted facade to the character and style of its well-preserved interior spaces. This much-loved family home, on sale for the first time in 20 years, has been smartly upgraded while retaining its handsome original features and spacious traditional proportions. Plus it has a large established garden haven at the rear offering leafy privacy. Glenora's premium street setting is right on the doorstep of Petersham's village hub with an array of cafés, dining, shopping and transport options within a short stroll. Immaculately maintained throughout with well-appointed interiors. High ornate ceilings, decorative fireplaces and many original details. Versatile two-story layout featuring 4-5 bedrooms and storage. Formal lounge room plus a casual space that opens to the outdoors. Contemporary kitchen includes a breakfast bar. A sheltered dining patio, paved alfresco area and spacious garden. Traditional front verandah, lock-up shed, solar panels and air-conditioning. A super convenient location that's just 7km from Sydney's CBD with multiple transport options.
