69 Canterbury Road, has been thoughtfully planned to provide the ultimate life-style for those accustomed to the very best. The kitchen certainly is the center piece of this home boasting ample storage, cupboard space, drawers and island bench that completes this designer kitchen that has been finished with designer fixtures/fittings and stone bench tops. The Caesarstone bench tops are featured throughout this home including kitchen, bathroom, en-suite, laundry, and even in the walk in robe. This Steve Dux built home has been designed with outdoor entertainment in mind, having glass sliding door access from the kitchen, which seamlessly flows outside to the entertainment area. With the patio ceiling being lined in quality rich timber, really giving you those Balinese holiday vibes. The separate formal lounge really adds to the quality living space in this home. Having four large carpeted bedrooms, with one bedroom boasting a built in office desk and the master bedroom offering a luxury en-suite and walk in robe. This prestigious home is situated on a fully fenced allotment in the popular Maranda Heights Estate, close to the Estate's park land, an ideal space for the kids and pets.
