Set in a picture perfect row of Terrace houses this beautifully renovated house enjoys an enviable location and some nice surprises within. Set in the Cul De Sac end of Courtney street you are surrounded by the small parks and reserves North Melbourne is famous for and are within easy walking distance to Wreckyn St and Errol Street for the best coffee and shopping around, North Melb Primary just down the street and the easiest of access to VIC Markets and the CBD. The house has been beautifully maintained and features;- Two generous bedrooms with high ceilings- A light filled living room direct access via sliding glass door to the central courtyard- The neat kitchen features a gas cooker and mirrors the courtyard access- A cute renovated bathroom with laundry facilities- A central courtyard allowing for indoor/outdoor living. The central courtyard is a joy with afternoon sun and cool suburban outlook to rooftops and trees whilst bringing ample light into the house. Split system heating and cooling, light hybrid flooring and warm carpeting and are some additional features of this classic residence. The best of city living, with a green suburban feel.
