Escape to serenity on this sprawling 3.85-hectare estate, offering a harmonious blend of contemporary luxury and seclusion. Step inside the expansive family home and be greeted by modern fixtures, newly laid timber floating floors and a freshly painted interior bathing every corner in natural light and warmth. The master bedroom has walk-in robe, ensuite and ample room for reading space. Bedrooms 2 & 3 have convenient access to the main bathroom and boast built-in robes. The chef of the family can create culinary delights with spacious kitchen. Stone benchtops, glass splashbacks, dual sink and ovens, 5 burner cooktop and walk in pantry make food prep a dream whilst still being connected to the living space. Entertain effortlessly in the outdoor oasis, complete with a secluded shimmering pool and spacious living area, perfect for alfresco dining or simply soaking up the tranquillity of the surrounding landscape. The little ones will find their own slice of paradise in the dedicated kids' room, fostering creativity and play in a space of their own. Indulge in the joys of country living with your very own chicken coop, bore for water supply and spring fed creek. Embrace the sustainable lifestyle with room for food production, sheep and/or cattle. Additional highlights include convenient shedding, solar system and charming old stone barn offering endless possibilities for hobbies or potential renovation projects. Discover the ultimate sanctuary, where modern comfort meets country allure, without having to disconnect from Adelaide's CBD being a scenic 20 min drive via Magill.
