The area has long been a sleepy seaside shack town but is fast becoming a popular holiday destination and base to access several of the states iconic attractions including Port Arthur, Ship Sterns Bluff & the Three Capes Track. Located at the end of a quite cul-de-sac, 69 Lagoon road offers stunning panoramic views across Storm Bay to Bruny Island and the South West Wilderness. The property will offer the perfect opportunity on which to construct a dream holiday house making the most of the uninterrupted views and is only eight minutes walk to the beach. Recently cleared and with some excavations and leveled land on which once stood a caravan, a small shed also contains a composting toilet. 'Low Density Residential', is the current zoning on this 904sqm (approx.) block with the Tasman Council planning division helpful to discuss your building plans. There are no sewage or water connections in the area. Nubeena is approximately a 5 minutes' drive where there are 2 IGAs for supplies, School for Primary to High School children, Tavern for easy meals, and the convenience of a local Medical Centre, Pharmacy, Bank and more.
