The sweet serenity of the country lifestyle is on offer and calling your name...Located right beside the Rocky River and directly in between the beautiful town of Laura and the ever popular Stone Hut Bakery, this superb allotment can allow you to enjoy the fresh country air, peace and quiet in addition to the beautiful locals that surround. 4.04 Hectares leaves more than enough room for you and the whole family to play, store your caravan, boat, collection of car or bikes and still room to build your dream! In the main house is 3 generous size bedrooms and a study which can be modified into a bedroom with ease. In country style, the kitchen has plenty of space and plenty of storage with easy to maintain tiled flooring. Special feature to this kitchen is the old style oven and stove creating a special look, however could be updated for particular taste. Fans are installed in 2 bedrooms, kitchen and dining along with a split system in the front lounge room. Undercover parking is located to the side of the home. A small distance away you will find the granny flat which holds one bedroom and bathroom, the perfect space for your guests to enjoy a private getaway. This beautifully kept property is a rare offering and can provide you with a dream country lifestyle, an opportunity not to be missed!
