Marrying traditional style with a custom rebuild and Hamptons aesthetic, this executive residence presents a mesmerising lifestyle for families and elevated city views. Elegantly adorned with sophisticated style, the home's upper floor retains classic ornate ceilings and period appeal, while the lower level embraces meticulous modern design with French oak floors, fresh paint and plantation shutters. Indoor and outdoor living intertwine with bi-fold doors separating the expansive, open-plan kitchen, living and dining areas from the poolside entertaining oasis. Families are invited to relax inside and share meals prepared in the gourmet kitchen, which is equipped with an oversized waterfall island, 2pac shaker-style cabinetry, a large butler's pantry, and dual Smeg ovens. Alfresco dining, parties, and entertainment can be enjoyed outdoors, with a large terrace nestled by the flat backyard and heated swimming pool, which boasts a daybed for lounging in the sunshine. With a separate studio also featuring outside, buyers are offered a retreat for kids, hobbies, or working from home. An additional media room is downstairs, and a living room upstairs opens to an elevated verandah where one can marvel at the breezes and scenic city views. Four bedrooms and two bathrooms are upstairs, including the master hideaway with a walk-in robe and dual vanity ensuite. A fifth bedroom and third bathroom are positioned below and offer excellent privacy. Additional features:- Remote three-car garage with side access- Extensive storage and walk-in linen closet- Heated chlorine saltwater pool- Natural gas and 3-phase power- Split system air-conditioning and ceiling fans- External security cameras Residing at an exclusive Camp Hill address, this home promises a prestigious lifestyle 16 minutes from the CBD. Camp Hill Primary School is 50m away, and Brisbane's best private colleges are accessible in minutes. You can shop, dine and socialise at Martha Street and Camp Hill Marketplace, and enjoy the outdoors at nearby parks and Whites Hill Reserve.
