With such a terrific location and the foundation to be a great property, this property's potential is limitless. Kitchen and dining is situated in the middle of the home, with the living space located at the front of the house. Featuring three spacious bedrooms. Blocks of land are hard to come by at present, so whether you renovate the property entirely or knock it down and start again the possibilities are endless. If you would like further information, then please do not hesitate to contact Sophie Litchfield on 0487 694 450
