The best of both worlds...Offering country living & township convenience, this spacious Western Red Cedar character home is set on 1.065 Hectares (approx. 2.63 acres).With a unique & flexible floor plan, including open living areas, four bedrooms, feature spiral staircase & expansive loft, this home will suit a range of buyers and lifestyles, while the character design, slow combustion wood oven & abundance of timber throughout combine to create an incredibly warm & homely environment.Originally built in 1986, the home is now ripe for renovation, but the character & charm of this unique home provides the ideal space for the growing family. Surrounded by sprawling lawns & gardens along with established trees & an idyllic creek setting, the property also boasts an abundance of bird & wildlife, while the free-standing carport, chook run & wood shed, plus extensive shedding, including studio/workshop combine to make the property suited to a wide range of pursuits.Offering a magnificent lifestyle in a picturesque park-like setting, this fantastic location also boasts all the convenience of the main street precinct only a short stroll away and the shopping complex, directly across the road. A fantastic buying opportunity!
