Enhanced with a beautifully distinctive façade and captivating originality inside, this divine three bedroom Art Deco treasure has a rich family future on 646 sqm approx. in the prized McKinnon Secondary College zone. Beyond the trademark curved porch and authentic entry foyer, this solid brick beauty reveals two charming north facing front bedrooms with built in robes, an irresistible lounge with fireplace, a modern classic kitchen (900 mm stainless steel stove and dishwasher) adjoining the family size dining area, a substantial rear third bedroom with built in robes, a gleaming bathroom and an open laundry with second toilet. A happy place for the kids to play, currently with its sun splashed patio and lush lawn, the deep rear garden that lets you envision an extension or swimming pool. Whereas, for the parents, there's a private rear studio that's ideal for working from home. Timeless with its high decorative ceilings and rich timber detail including exquisite cabinetry, this single level gem is appointed with ducted heating, evaporative cooling, aircon in main bedroom, security doors, good storage and secure undercover parking for two cars. Highly convenient family position, where the kids can walk to both McKinnon Primary School and McKinnon Secondary College, you can grab all the essentials on North Road, take the city train from Ormond station and enjoy picnics and playtime together at gorgeous Joyce Park.
