This exceptional standalone townhouse at 6A Jubilee Street offers an enticing blend of comfort, convenience, and contemporary living. Recently painted internally and re-carpeted in all three generous bedrooms, this dwelling is perfectly tailored for investors, working professionals, a young family, or those taking their first exciting step onto the property ladder. Upon entering this fully air-conditioned abode, you'll be struck by its large and spacious interior, extending over two well-appointed storeys. The heart of this home is the open-plan living and dining area, leading out to multiple outdoor spaces, including a covered and private patio. These areas provide the perfect backdrop for alfresco dining, entertaining, or simply soaking up the Queensland sun. The residence comprises a trio of cosy bedrooms and a modern bathroom on each level, ensuring ample space for relaxation and personal retreat. The front timber deck off two of the bedrooms provides the perfect, breezy getaway space to relax with a drink. Security and privacy are paramount here, with a fenced yard offering a safe haven for pets and children to play and adults to unwind. The single lockup garage comes with a remote for ease of access, and a second roller door leading onto the patio and side yard. Situated in a sought-after location, 6A Jubilee Street is just a stone's throw from the vibrant Mackay town centre and Caneland Central, allowing for convenient access to shops, restaurants, and entertainment options. The modest land size of 248m² ensures low maintenance without compromising on living space, privacy or outdoor enjoyment. This property represents a sterling opportunity in Mackay with no body corporate fees. Whether you're an investor or looking for your new home, don't miss your chance to own this modern home within reach of urban amenities.
