This exquisite residence just metres from the beach will take your breath away with its extraordinary locale, airy living spaces and private courtyard. The glowing honey-coloured parquet floor is a highlight of the atrium-style entry hall, as is the gracious timber staircase. To your right, the formal living room offers a tranquil space to sit and enjoy the romance of the gas log fire in the cooler months and a refreshing sea breeze in summer. At the other end of the room there's the formal dining area with a leafy outlook. The kitchen features stone bench tops and stainless-steel appliances including a wall oven. The adjoining meals area boasts a discreet built-in bar and the family room opens to the rear paved alfresco dining complete with water feature and a retractable awning. The sleeping quarters are upstairs. There's an elegant master bedroom with a walk-through robe leading to the en suite and two more spacious bedrooms, one with built-in desk and storage. There's also a family bathroom, separate toilet and a neat home office at the top of the stairs. Additional features include a double garage, ducted heating and cooling, ducted vacuum, a security/intercom system and ample storage.
