Breathtaking views crown this luxe contemporary palace, with each impressive level gazing across rooftops to the depths of Botany Bay. A haven of crisp white angles, extensive glazing and heavenly natural light, this abode streams from sprawling open-plan living out to an entertainment terrace, lawn and gorgeous hedge-trimmed pool. The opulence continues upstairs, between a sundrenched sitting room or office, four bedrooms and immense master suite complete with parents' retreat. Ascend one more level to a roof terrace, where the bird's eye views are truly majestic. This elevated oasis makes a striking impression in its quiet street, among the quality homes surrounding it, and is just 700 metres up the road from trains, shops and dining at Banksia Village. Live like royalty within 11km of the CBD, mere minutes from Bayside beaches and the best of the inner-west. Solid brick and concrete slab freestanding residence across three levels, including a rooftop terrace- Gun barrel views to the bay and Port Botany- Sundrenched open-plan living, plus formal lounge and upstairs sitting room or office- Beautifully landscaped gardens cascade from an entertainment terrace to a lawn and pool with water feature- Four bedrooms include dreamy master suite with parent's retreat, walk-in robe, balcony and ensuite- Combination of travertine tiling and timber floors; ducted AC, downlights and recessed blinds- Stone-topped kitchen showcases gas cooktop and sleek finger-pull joinery- Miele appliances and Methven tapware- LUG with internal access, plus gated driveway parking- Peaceful street a short stroll to trains, shops, dining and parklands
