Sophisticated style and city-style lifestyle meet in this central Highett lifestyle location. Steps from Highett's celebrity restaurants, local-favourite cafes and easy supermarket shopping in a secluded court position, this architectural three bedroom plus work-at-home office, 2.5 bathroom home has all the style of inner-city living...and a 30 minute rail-trip to city work and entertainment surprisingly close! Unfolding beyond a bold concrete-style façade with entertaining living-dining wrapped by decking on two sides, this as-new opportunity sparkles with sophisticated style; from the trio of designer pendants lighting the sleek Ilve appliance kitchen, to the deluxe dual-vanity ensuite to the master, to leading-edge finishes including textured wideboard oak floors and slick stone benchtops. Optioned up with better-than-new extras including airy roof-hung sheers plus block-out blinds, bespoke-fitted storage in a walk-in robe and even bike-racking for the auto-garage, there's entertaining bench seating and bar-ledge for the courtyard and two-car parking on an easy-care exposed aggregate driveway and in an auto-garage hidden set in the streamlined façade. Central to the Highett Rd's vibrant hospitality and transport hub with Hellenic House's souvas at the door, the Diplomat's avo toast around the corner, and the station within steps beyond a 'secret' pedestrian path, there's all the lifestyle you'd usually head to the inner-city forwith all the beaches, golf-courses and great schools of Bayside at the door.
