AUCTION $580,000-$630,000

Glistening from end to end, this beautifully presented home sits in one of the most coveted pockets of Reservoir, within walking distance to Edwardes Street Village, public transport, and Edwardes Lake parklands. With its own street frontage, the generous floor plan introduces an entrance passageway that flows past two spacious bedrooms and central bathroom, before stepping into a large living area and open plan kitchen and dining at the rear. The elegant kitchen with timber countertops comes equipped with ample storage and quality appliances including dishwasher. The immaculate rear yard offers plenty of space for entertaining along the with a carport. Added highlights also include split system heating/cooling, stylish window furnishings, internal storage, large laundry, hardwood timber flooring and multiple courtyards.
