Bright spaces - and a bright idea - this inviting one bedroom apartment's appeal as an entry level address is matched by its attraction as an investment. From either perspective, the outlooks are exceptionally positive. The location also plays a significant part by offering ideal proximity to St Georges Road trams, Croxton train station, Mayer Park and the area's renowned range of cafes and shops. A living/dining of pleasing size and style is accompanied by a well maintained timber kitchen while the bedroom's built-in robes, ensuite bathroom and leafy outlook complement its comfort and character. Off street car parking is an added asset of a rewarding opportunity in a traditional boutique Thornbury block of only eight.
