Enter through the grand entrance hall and enjoy lift access or ascend the ornate staircase to this beautiful first-floor apartment, featuring soaring high ceilings and gorgeous timber floorboards. The spacious open-plan living area, bathed in natural light, features a crisp, contemporary design and opens onto a generous balcony with sweeping views of the bay and city glimpses. The kitchen, topped with Caesarstone, boasts induction cooking, an oven, a dishwasher, an attractive glass splashback, and ample cupboard space. Unwind in the expansive master bedroom, which offers serene bay views and is equipped with walk-in robes and a luxurious ensuite. Additional features include a European laundry in the hallway, video intercom security, split-system heating/cooling, and secure on-site parking. The landmark boom-style Victorian building, constructed circa 1888, was formerly known as the Hotel Victoria. It's just a stroll away from Albert Park Village, Victoria Ave trams and shops, Albert Park Lake, and MSAC, and only minutes from the CBD.
