Discreetly positioned within a serene and leafy enclave, this attractive 2 bedroom abode benefits from its desirable single level design and fashionably renovated comfort. Oriented towards the north for an abundance of natural light throughout the day, the stylish stone kitchen is equipped with a Fisher & Paykel oven and Miele dishwasher, both finished in stainless steel. An open-plan configuration, the generous living and dining room spills outside through double sliding doors to the sunny north deck and peacefully private garden. Featuring a stone dual-vanity bathroom, polished floorboards, a split system air-conditioner and a single auto garage, astute investors and first home buyers will see the enormous value on offer within this home. In a prime location where you can stroll to every sought-after amenity, live just moments from Aquahub, Swinburne University, Croydon's bustling village precinct, Croydon Central and the train station.
