Introducing the exquisite Inala 7 - a self-contained alpine getaway nestled within Thredbo's charming village where comfort and convenience meet alpine luxury. Just a stone's throw from the village bus shuttle stop, this retreat ensures effortless access to Friday Flat and the Valley Terminal, making all snow adventures a breeze. This property has been thoughtfully renovated with opulence and practicality in mind as evident in the open-plan area. From entertaining guests to family time together the open living, dining, and kitchen area will quickly become the hub of the home. The combustion fireplace and underfloor heating keep you comfy through those cool winter days. Perfectly framed by the breathtaking ski slope mountain views from the undercover balcony connecting seamlessly bringing the outside in. The lower level hosts not only the bedrooms, bathroom, and laundry but your own sauna, perfect for after those long days skiing. With the comfort of a dedicated drying room and ski locker, secure your equipment while keeping your space organized and clutter-free. Designated parking right outside the building's entry gives you additional convenience. This is one you will want to come and experience.
