Ideally positioned in a serene South Yarra court, this exceptional apartment offers refined luxury, elegance and tranquility. Set in "Stanhope", designed by prominent architect Gabor Hubay, this immaculate residence with lift access has fabulous leafy views and incredible natural light. With only eight apartments in this boutique block, it delivers exclusivity and privacy in an ultra-convenient location. The interiors are a sun-drenched delight. Expansive proportions, high ceilings, marble finishes and large windows with opulent silk curtains enhance the sun-drenched and welcoming nature of the residence. The gracious living and dining domain opens seamlessly to the wrap-around balcony for relaxed indoor-outdoor living. Bi-fold doors open the living room to the generous study, which could also double as a third bedroom. A separate dine-in kitchen with Miele appliances, granite benchtops and ample storage, also has balcony access. Two bedrooms include the opulent main suite with a bay window and treed outlook. It features a walk-in wardrobe and lavish marble ensuite with twin vanities, spa bath and separate shower. The second bedroom is served by a marble bathroom which also caters for guests and residents. This appealing residence includes laundry, heating, cooling, security entrance, parking for two cars and a storage cage. Perfectly positioned to offer an extraordinary lifestyle, it is just metres to Rockley Gardens and the South Yarra Library and close to Toorak Village, cosmopolitan Chapel Street, Hawksburn Village, world-class shopping, restaurants, galleries and cultural events. Take the tram along Toorak Road to the city or the train at nearby Hawksburn Station.
