Proximity to the Esplanade, the water, walking paths, the beach and Point Gellibrand ensures exceptional appeal defines this lifestyle offered by this ideal apartment. Equally enticing if investment performance is the priority, this is an address, with off street parking, that promises success. The character of polished parquet floors, the comfort of reverse cycle heating/cooling and the outdoor allure of a balcony accompany a generous living/dining area that links to an adjoining yet individually zoned kitchen featuring its own gleaming parquet and impeccable presentation. Two bedrooms, with built-in robes, share a bathroom distinguished by a stylish timber vanity, dual mirrors and a substantial shower. The presence of an allocated car space further ensures this property provides the perfect end to your search for a first home you'll never forget, or an investment you'll never regret.
